Date

Buru Tegh Bahadur's Martyrdom Day
(24th November)

tyrant Aurangzeb
none more cruel to Hindus
In the World Wide Web!
all the misery, to him, was due no wonder, him, we still bear conversation was forced
or else death, & certainty;
there was no remorse.

the distressed deserved pity as they prayed to all deities a beacon of light
Sikh Buru Tegh Bahadur
heard of Hindus flight.
the answer he was quite sure 'tolerance', simple and pure
'faith is one's own choice to convert by force is crime
listen to people's voice;

H.O.S.

You have no reason or rhyme to kill; let bells of love chime'
 the pious guru
 met and gave piece of his mind
 but the king did not bave;
 'One Hindu to behead, you find;
 if you do, then you're kind!
 the guru unmoved
 offered: 'behead me if you want;
 let Hindus be loved'

Aurangzeb, with respect, scent beheaded the guru, in an instant Guru Tegh Bahadur
 stood up for Hindus, rock like
 like none else before;
 on this day, a lamp we shall light
 let tolerance, always shine bright!
