10.	Read the Passage given below and answer the following Questions. Mapping the Earth is a little more difficult because our planet is not a flat surface. It nearly has the shape of a sphere. (We say 'nearly' because it is not a perfect sphere, but is slightly flattened at the poles. However, in practice, we will consider it to be spherical.) Representing a sphere accurately on a flat sheet of paper is not possible. To understand why, peel an orange in such a way that you have just three or four large pieces of the skin; then try and flatten them on a table — you will see that you cannot do it without tearing them at the edges. Now, consider a globe , which is a sphere on which a map is drawn. This may be a map of the Earth, the Moon, the planet Mars, the stars and constellations in the sky, etc. The physical object, like the one shown in the drawing on the next page, is a sphere that is generally made of metal, plastic or cardboard. Here we will study the globe representing the Earth's geography. Because the globe and the Earth have the same spherical shape, a globe will better represent the geography of the Earth than a flat map. 10.1 Describe a map. 10.2 Why is mapping the Earth difficult? 10.3 Describe the importance of a globe.	4 1 1 2

The family is also a 'school', where children learn important values such as ahimsa, dana (giving), seva (service) and tyaga (sacrifice). Individuals in the family often give up their own needs to take care of the family's needs. 11.1 What is the important principle of Indian culture? 11.2 In what way does the family play the role of a school? 11.3 Which qualities are developed in an individual through the family? Describe any two.	4 1 1 2
12.	Read the Passage given below and answer the following Questions. You may have noticed that we earlier mentioned 'representatives of the people'. This is one of the foundation stones of the system of governance adopted by most countries of the world — democracy . The word 'democracy'	4
