Guru Teg Bahadur: Personality, Life and Teachings

Indian culture is at the top in the history of world civilization and culture due to its many characteristics. One history man dedicated their lives to remove the sorrow and pain of others without worrying about the gain and loss of their own happiness. One of these great man was a great sacrificer and 9th Guru Sikh name Guru Tegh Bahadur ji. Guru Tegh Bahadur ji made the supreme sacrificer so that all religion could live and practise their faith free from fear. Guru Tegh Bahadur ji was born on 1 April 1621 in Anandpur of Punjab and was named Tyagnal in childhood. Guru Tegh Bahadur ji was married to Mata Gurbai in 1633. In 1656 Guru ji moved to the village called "Bakola" where Guru Tegh Bahadur ji spends a lot of time in contemplation and prayers. Following the path laid down by first guru of the Sikh named "Guru Nank Dev" He was the Ninth Guru of Sikhs. Guru Tegh Bahadur ji also composed 115 poetic hymns that are in the text of Guru Granth Sahib. He also done so many works for special welfare such as digging wells, making roads, the cities as well as village settlement, building Dharamshala, etc. Along with this, he also made an important contribution to the spiritual, social, economic fields, etc. The Guru revealed the true reason behind human suffering to his followers It is in times of despair and misery that one gets to see the ephemeral nature of worldly pleasures and only they can one truly learn value greater things in life and one should help other.

He said that "true realization of the actual nature of this material world, its perishable, transitory and illusory aspects best dawns on a person in suffering. Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji showed the path of divinity to his disciples by teaching them to overcome greed, desire, ego and pain. Therefore, from the life of Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji, we get some teachings that Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji had advised all his followers to remove the vices like greed, attachment etc. and adopt the path of humanity, truth, religion. And we all have to keep the thoughts of Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji immortal forever by following the path shown by him. So in conclusion, we can say that Guru Tegh Bahadur was a great man who is famous for his teaching. Even at present, the name of the Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji is written in golden letters.
