Topic :- 'Guru Teg Bahadur: Hind Di Chaadar'

Oh! Guru Teg Bahadur Ji,

The ninth sikh guru ji,

The master of esteem and dignity,

You, known as 'Bahadur' for showing bravery.

The protector of humanity,

Aurangzeb was the Mughal King,

Who wanted only one thing,

To turn all the Hindus into Muslim.

Even though, You were a sikh,

You sacrificed to set the Hindus free.

And forced the Mughals to flee.

You're the one;

Who taught us humanitarianism,

That is need of the day.

For whom gold and dust are same,

Taught us how to overcome pain.

Taught, who grieves not in misery

And delight not in pleasure,

Is the happiest person ever.

You taught us, how to get crystal of peace,

● To stay in relief.

How to vanish materialistic world,

From our mind.

We remembered last words, you said;

“Give up your head,

But not for the sake those whom you

Have undertaken to protect.

Sacrifice your life,

But not relinquish your faith.”

He was given a victor's welcome,

By the hosts of the heaven.
