A Door to Another World

You find a small, colourful door at the bottom of a tree in your school playground. You open it and crawl through. Where does the door lead? Describe the new world you see in five sentences by using following hints if needed. What is strange or wonderful about the trees, the sky, the ground, and any creatures you meet?

(Hints: Think about all the five senses. What do you see, hear, smell, and feel in this new world? Is it a land made of candy, a world where everything is bouncy, or a forest with glowing plants?)

OR

My Amazing Superhero Power

If you could have any superhero power in the world for just one day, what would it be? Describe your new power. How would you use this power to help your family, your friends, and your neighbours in one day? Write about it in five sentences. (By using following hints if needed.)

(Hints: Clearly explain your superpower first. Then, tell a short story about how you use it. For example, if you can fly, how does that help someone? If you can talk to plants, what problem do you solve?)
